Article by Brian H. Butler B.A., D.O., F.A.S.K.

Class of '64 Graduate & former Faculty Member of Ambassador College, England.

These notes, composed from 2013 on, are based on taped lectures given between 1977 and 1997 by Dr. Ernest L. Martin, Ph.D., formerly the Head of Theology for the Worldwide Church of God; he resigned in January 1974 because of his unresolved doctrinal issues with the administration. Sadly Dr. Martin died in January 2002, a great loss to the world and to those who seek Biblical truth.

Daniel 12:4 and verse 9 tell that knowledge of prophecy will be increased in the latter days of the end time.

Our understanding of prophecy and indeed the Bible hinges on "The Restoration of all things" foretold in Acts.

Acts 3:21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

The time is coming when the true relevance of the Bible scriptures for our age present age will be better understood. The vital relevance of the scriptures will be revealed as knowledge is increased, and the truths of the original Bible in its pristine order of perfection will be spread and disseminated. We who understand this will want to be about our Father's business.

It is important that everyone whose mind and heart have been opened to understand God's Word that every detail of our lives, every experience good or bad, have not only been allowed to occur by God, but are all part of His Plan for each of us individually. God is preparing and developing our minds the way He wants us to be so that we fit perfectly into His Family as we grow in grace and knowledge and become perfected at the resurrection.

The overall picture and structure of the Bible as it was first produced and its perfection are going to be realized first in Israel and ultimately all around the world. The Bible is completely accurate, and is exactly as God & Christ intended it to be, including the apparent errors!

After all the Holy Bible was composed by YHWH, the Creator and Designer of the Universe, of this Earth and all there is, the Lifegiver, the Sustainer, the Messiah, our Saviour and Older Brother Jesus Christ, who inspired it to be written under Divine inspiration by His servants the Prophets and Apostles.

Look at the incredible complexity of nature, the DNA spiral and the mystery of life in all its intricacy, and then imagine that that Being could not manage to write a Book and have it produced through men exactly the way He wanted it? That just cannot be so.

Zionism is anchored in the return of the Jews and Israelites to Palestine and Jerusalem, which involves their returning to the land of Canaan which was promised to and given to the Israelite people for their inheritance by God. Only the Jews and Israelites have retained the desire to return to the area.

The inhabitants of the Gentile nations of the world are not the slightest bit interested in returning to the land now called Israel. This simple plain fact of life reveals that the peoples of the U.S. and G.B. and Northern European are not Israelites. This is a simplistic and fanciful idea which has no basis in fact.

God originally set the bounds of the habitation, the geographical location of the peoples, initially according to the number of the children of Israel. God also originally set the bounds of the whole human race. Ancient migrations and the ease of modern travel have changed the original bounds of the placing of the nations

Deuteronomy 32:7 Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee. 8 When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. 7 Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee; thy elders, and they will tell thee. 8 When the Most High divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the sons of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

Acts 17:26 And (God – YHVH) hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

Since 1948 with the formation of the modern country of Israel, there has been an intensified focus on the Biblical prophecies regarding the area it covers, even by the non-religious top brass in the Israeli government, whether they are believers in God or not, they are seriously interested in the prophecies about the area whether they believe the writings were inspired or not.

The Bible has always been relevant for human kind, but it is now even more relevant than in the past as we enter the 'end times' and the second advent draws closer.

Psalm 74:17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

Job 14:5 Seeing his days (the length of time we live) are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast (also) appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

The peoples of the world live where God wants them to be. God knows what He is doing! Acts 15:18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. His plan originated before the world was formed, and He knows the end of all his works.

God appointed Israel to be a priestly nation, a mediating nation, to be an example to the rest of the population of the world. Sadly that did not happen. The Bible is a catalogue of the millennia of the historical events of a people who far from being a good 'wife' to God, they consistently failed to honour God, and were an example of an idolatrous and disobedient group of people.

Through thousands of years whatever God asked them, or told them to do, they appeared are recorded to have behaved in exactly the opposite way. The Jews and Israelites have not changed as a people, and are still as idolatrous and as far from God as they have ever been. So are all the Gentile nations, just as far from God.

The 'Jewish' religion and Zionism are based on a Messiah, but without the Messiah! Over two thousand years ago, they rejected and killed God's Son, Jesus Christ, and failed to recognize Him as their Messiah and Saviour then, and they still reject the very idea to this day. But this is going to change according to prophecies in the Bible.

This change of heart will mean that they will reject all vestiges of paganism and idolatry that are part of every religious system on this earth. Jewish priests, the Chemarim, will abandon their black clothing and strange apparel as it is referred to in Zephaniah.

Zephanish 1:4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests;

Baal worship is mentioned many times in the Old Testament. Chemerims were Baal worshippers, who dressed in black robes. The name Chemarims means "black ones". The black robes also supposedly reflected the blackness of their hearts and the word is rendered "idolatrous priests" in 2 Kings 23:5.

Baal worship is not just a primitive historical activity of ignorant ancient peoples, it is as alive and well as it ever was, being the foundational beliefs, customs and activities that are interwoven in all we think of as being Christianity today.

Zephaniah 1:6 And them that are turned back from the Lord; and those that have not sought the Lord, nor enquired for him. 7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: for the day of the Lord is at hand: for the Lord hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests. 8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the Lord's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange (black) apparel.

God is going to punish all those who have 'turned back from the Lord', even though they are, or rather were, His people.

2 Kings 23:5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; them also that burned incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven. 6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the Lord, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the (murdered) children of the people.

In ritualistic Baal worship adults would gather around the altar of Baal. Infants would then be burned alive as a sacrificial offering to the deity, and men and women alike would engage in bisexual orgies. Modern liberalistic views of sexual 'freedoms' deviate little from ancient Baal worship. Its horrific rituals have been changed, and by frequent common use, rendered more 'acceptable'. The worship of "fertility" has been replaced with worship of "reproductive freedom" or "choice." Child sacrifice by fire has become child sacrifice by way of abortion that in our era has become virtually an accepted part of our 'culture'. Millions of babies die every year this way at the hands of selfish Godless people.

There are historical indications that tree stumps in these groves (Hebrew word is asherah) were carved with various lewd figures and that the prostitute priestesses and priests of Baal led in ritualistic sexual activities in the 'groves', encouraging the "worshippers" to do likewise. For such a wooden image of Asherah or Ashtoreth (equivalent also to Astarah, Ishtar, or 'Easter' the female sex goddess) to be installed in the house of the Lord, with all her immoral ceremonies carried out there, was indeed the height of blasphemy and had certainly incurred God's wrath.

The Baal worshipper's ritualistic promotion, practice and celebration of both heterosexual and homosexual immorality and promiscuity have been whitewashed and embraced in cults of radical feminism, militant "gay rights" and "comprehensive sex education."

2 Kings 23:7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the Lord, where the women wove hangings for the grove.

The relatively new nation of Israel has strayed so far from God and His laws as to host "Gay Rights" events that draw participants from all over the world. Baal worship is alive and well.

The pantheistic aspect of ancient Baal worship of "mother earth" has been substituted with radical environmentalism and "New Age" thinking.

Zephaniah 1:5 And them that worship the host of heaven (the earth and the astrological heavens) upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the Lord, and that swear by Malcham ;

In many so-called civilized countries of the world many sections of society has been infected by child molesting and other occult and diverse sexual practices including bankers, politicians, judges, police, care workers and more. These sick men and women worship Moloch (Molech, Milcom, Malcham) the 'god' of Child Sacrifice. They use their power in society to mask and hide their evil work. Child trafficking has reached pandemic proportions in our era.

Is it any wonder that God will allow severe punishment to fall on His chosen people, and all humans until they repent and have a change of heart.

The world's billions of Catholic adherents will perhaps abandon the many statues that are objects of adoration and worship. Perhaps also they will give up calling their priests 'father', as the Bible explicitly says "call no man father' in a religious or worshipping context. Also they will come to realize that praying to the Virgin Mary is pointless since she is currently dead (not conscious) and buried, and will remain in her tomb until resurrected at some future time.

Men, would-be Christians who grow their hair long, which the Bible states clearly is a shame on a man, will have it cut short. No men wore their hair long in Christ's era as is witnessed by the hundreds of statues and artworks depicting the people of that time. In the Bible the only beings with long hair as of women are rebellious wicked destructive angels mentioned in Revelation 9:7.

Leaders and adherents of the many Protestant persuasions will come to realize that their religion is infused from top to bottom with pagan and idolatrous images. The long haired 'Christ' of statues, and millions of pictures that are cherished in so many churches and homes are in fact images of the ancient god Zeus.

The crucifix on display in many churches and worn around the neck of believers is actually a pagan sun worshipper's symbol. Its origin goes back to ancient Egyptian times. It was carried in the hands of the Egyptian priests and Pontiff kings as the symbol of their authority as priests of the Sun god and was called 'the Sign of Life', and by extension it is also said to be sex symbol of a man's genitalia.

In the Roman era they crucified people on trees, or poles made from trees. Christ carried the cross bar branch not the whole cross. They did not have nicely planed 5'x3" timber then as pictured by crucifixes. Making them out of gold or silver and using them in churches or wearing them is breaking the second commandment.

Concerning all images in a religious context, in any event, one fact is unarguable. The original commandment of God stated very clearly:

Exodus 20:3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me. 4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. 5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them:

“Any likeness of anything” is all inclusive. The instruction is to tell mankind not to diminish God, by representing Him in any way with anything made in association with any religious activity. Christian churches of all denominations are filled with an enormous range of different types of “likeness” that are part of the architecture, the decoration and backdrop of the buildings.

God says very clearly, don't do that. Don't make images. So, as with so many of God's directions to His children, what do humans do? The exact opposite.

Then they may attempt to justify their actions. “Oh we do not worship them...” “They are not really idols...” “They Remind me of Jesus...”

After the children of Israel witnessed the incredible wonders of miracles and God's power during the period of the Exodus, even while Moses was up the mountain receiving the commandments, they were making a golden idol of a calf which they proceeded to worship, and then set out to 'play'. This 'play' involved immoral sexual activities which God had also told them not to be involved in.

This deliberate idolatrous behaviour on the part of those who claim to worship God runs as a thread all through the scriptures, and on into the every day lives of those in our era who claim to be Christians.

Jews, Catholics and Protestants and Fundamentalists, everyone who thinks about God will come to appreciate the instruction from Him in the Bible not to learn or practice the ways of the heathen.

Deuteronomy 18:9 When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

Billions claiming to be Christians around the world celebrate Christmas, a pagan sun festival, the origins of which have nothing to do with Christ. Christ was not born on 25th December but in the Autumn. December 25th is the time of the Winter Solstice the first longer day celebrated the sun as it was “reborn” each year. People do not give gifts to Christ as did the Magi (how could they anyway?), but to each other during a binge of self-indulgent spending, eating and drinking. They spend money they cannot afford giving presents to people who neither need nor want them. Self-righteous people often say that Christmas has become too commercial, not realizing that the event is completely pagan and idolatrous although it is supposedly based on the story of Christ’s birth.

Jeremiah 10:1 Hear ye the word which the Lord speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: 2 Thus saith the Lord, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. 3 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. 4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

Indeed keeping Christmas is a vain custom. The evergreen tree with lights, with glittering decorations, all depicting the ancient practices of Baal sun worship. The wreath hung on the front door mourning the ‘death’ of the sun, kissing under the mistletoe is a hangover of pagan sexual immorality. There is nothing whatsoever in any of it to do with New Testament Christianity.

Billions claiming to be Christians around the world celebrate Easter. The word comes from Ishtar the sex goddess. Some scholars believe that Easter gets its name from Eostre or Ostara, a Germanic pagan goddess. Spring rites of Ishtar which were practiced thousands of years before Christ have been adapted and adopted to fit the Christian calendar at time of Christ’s crucifixion.

Jeremiah 44:19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

Who was the queen of heaven? Nimrod a grandson of Noah's son Ham, became a god-man worshipped by his followers. He put himself 'before' (or ahead of) the Lord, as it says in Genesis, and built the tower of Babel the origin of steeples.

Nimrod married his mother, Semiramis who became known as 'Ishtar' who worshipped the Sun (Baal, Satan) and the Moon. Semiramis had a child called Tammuz.

virgin birth by Semiramis (supposedly impregnated by the sun's rays) and so basically Jesus and the Virgin Mary are representations of Semiramis and Tammuz.

Semiramis became known as "Ishtar" (later Egyptian 'Isis') which is pronounced "Easter", and her moon egg became known as "Ishtar's" egg." The son that she brought forth was named Tammuz.

The river which runs through London is called the 'Thames' or 'Tammuz' and that its source is the Isis. These pagan roots are firmly linked to our ancestors in Britain.

Ishtar also proclaimed a forty day period of time of sorrow each year (Lent) prior to the anniversary of the death of Tammuz. During this time, no meat was to be eaten.

Worshippers were to meditate upon the sacred mysteries of Baal and Tammuz, and to make the sign of the "T" in front of their hearts (the sign of the cross) as they worshipped. They also ate sacred cakes with the marking of a "T" or cross on the top. Were these cakes to become the 'hot cross buns' associated with Easter to this day?

Ishtar was the goddess of love and war, above all associated with sexuality: her cult involved sacred prostitution. She was particularly worshipped by Gentile nations in northern Mesopotamia, and the Assyrian cities of Nineveh and Asshur.

We have the modern word Estrogen, the sex hormone, and we have the sexually prolific Easter bunny, and the chocolate eggs being a symbol of sex, none of which have anything remotely to do with worshipping God or Christ.

Many Christians actually realize that Christ was not born on December 25th, and that Easter sunrise services, Easter bunnies and eggs are nothing really to do with Christianity, but they think it doesn't matter and is not important that these concepts and practices are inextricably intertwined with Christian beliefs and activities.

It really does not matter a jot what 'people' think or believe, it is what God says that is important, vitally important if we are properly to respect and worship Him as He wants us to.

Again, God says: Learn NOT the way of the heathen. So what do humans do? They do the opposite. They learn and practice the ways of the heathen and call them Christian. God hates this.

Practicing pagan customs is not about having a bit of fun, not being a spoilsport if you do not go along with it. Practicing idolatrous activities or doing anything that God hates is a matter of life and death. The doctrine of the trinity making the Holy Spirit into a person to be worshipped is an idolatrous device believed almost universally by Churchianity.

Ministers who claim they are doing 'God's Work' and turn Christianity into a money making business want your money to advance their activities, and use their god-given 'authority' to control you; all this Christ hates!

Jesus was furious with the Levites, the priests who had allowed the House of God, the Temple, to be turned into a money making business.

Matthew 21:12 And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Jesus also wrote in the book of Revelation to two of the churches about the Nicolaitanes.

Revelation 2:6 But this thou (of the church of Ephesus ) hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

Revelation 2:14 But I have a few things against thee (the church in Pergamos), because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit (spiritual) fornication. 15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

So what was it that Christ hated about the Nicolaitanes? According to some scholars, the Nicolaitanes are in part responsible for "Christianity's" acceptance of Christmas, Easter, Halloween and other unbiblical pagan and idolatrous practices including the worship of fallen angels. Worship of any angels is forbidden by Christ in Revelation 22:8-9. The Nicolaitanes claimed that sexual fornication and other practices were not wrong, and as Paul said some "turned grace into licentiousness". Some also said Nicolaitanism was the belief and practice of hierarchical government with an emphasis on tithing and using a paid ministry.

Christ hated the Temple being used for commerce, and no doubt He is as angry about 'ministers' who turn Christianity into a commercial money machine like so many of the TV and radio 'evangelists' do in the United States.

God hates the practice of any of the pagan idolatrous rites or customs. We do not want to participate in anything God hates.

The plethora of so-called 'Fundamentalist' churches appear to be more aligned with the Bible, but when an objective examination is made of their doctrines, it becomes clear that in many ways they are not consistent with the scripture's Christian message.

One group of such 'fundamentalist' denominations teaches its members to keep a form of parts the Mosaic Law. The Mosaic Law of physical rules and regulations was given to the "Children of Israel", who literally were "children" mentally and spiritually. Attempting to observe part of the law cannot work, it has to be all or nothing.

Keeping parts of the law in this era actually denies the reality, meaning and significance of Christ's life, sacrifice, and resurrection. A mature Christian understands that those laws were for those people then, not for us in the Christian era. We are no longer children needing a schoolmaster. We are under grace and the new law of love.

Ephesians 4:14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

Ministers of churches can appear as angels of light as Paul says, but if they are under the spell of Satan, then sleight, 'sleight of hand' as in magicians making the unreal seem real, deceptiveness of men, and cunning craftiness in misusing the scriptures are their stock in trade.

Galatians 3:23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. 26 For ye are all the (grown up) children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Observing the Passover which was a shadow of things to come before Christ came to earth is pointless since His crucifixion. Fasting on the Day of Atonement, a day of sacrifice for sin, literally obscures the fact that Christ's sacrifice of dying for and atoning for our sins rendered that practice completely unnecessary. Attempting to keep to the laws of clean and unclean meats, especially for Gentiles and Israelites alike is unnecessary as Paul made clear in his writings. Suggesting that tithing is a Christian responsibility is actually illegal in this era. Tithes were only authorized to be collected by Levites for the maintenance of the Temple which does not exist today.

Israel were supposed to be a priestly nation centred in Jerusalem. Even current maps of the world today have Jerusalem more or less in the centre. The Bible was given to the Jews and Israelites.

Romans 3:1 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? 2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

It is the Jews and Israelites that have the commission to spread the Word, not the Gentiles. We do not have such a commission, but we can certainly help in any way we can to spread the true Gospel.

When Jews and Israelites come to realize the error of their ways, paganism will be abandoned. The world will come to see that God is with them, and ten people will take hold of the 'skirt' of a Jew because they realize God is with them. People will not longer talk of when God organized the Exodus from Egypt, but instead will refer to the mass migration of the Jews from the Northern regions to Jerusalem. Israel will still suffer for their sins, in fact double.

The Gentiles will say, we have been told lies, and we have been deceived by the religious leaders of the world.

False prophets, MANY shall come in My name... Jeremiah 14:14 Then the Lord said unto me: The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

Ephesians 4:14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of (false) doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

B

We should be watching the Middle East, it is KEY to our understanding since that area is the focus of all prophecy concerning the end time.

Zionism and Islam are both expecting fulfillment of prophecy, and it is inevitable. The media of TV and radio will ensure that news of events will spread around the world instantaneously.

The last six chapters of Zechariah which were written by Jeremiah over a hundred years after Zechariah is made clear by Matthew. They were tacked on by Ezra at the time he canonized the Old Testament are apocalyptic, and are certainly for the end time.

There is to come a future siege against Israel and Jerusalem which might take the form of economic sanctions, military interventions, political pressures perhaps from the U.S. or the U.N. and it will seem like the whole world is against Israel.

Zechariah 12:1 The burden of the word of the Lord for Israel, saith the Lord, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem. 3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

None of this has happened historically. The 12th, 13, 14th chapters of Zechariah prophesy future events sequentially.

Zechariah 12:4 In that day, saith the Lord, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

Those involved with the siege will be “blinded”, confused, they will not see what is happening and they will be prevented from succeeding.

Zechariah 12:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. 10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

Jews and Israelites will not repent of their own volition, but God will send them grace, a Divine revelation, so that they will begin to realize that Jesus Christ was indeed the Son of God, and the Messiah. Some weep at the wailing wall now, but then they will look upon Him ‘who they pierced’ and have an awe inspiring realization, and they will weep about how Christ was treated, reviled and killed by their forebears.

Zechariah 13:2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

The Jews and Israelites will clear out false teachings, and even parents will kill their children that prophesy falsely.

Zechariah 13:3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the Lord: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

Those who were priests will be ashamed, and this applies to all those around the world who propagated so many forms of Churchianity loaded with idolatry and paganism, and will deny they ever had anything to do with prophesying, and claim to have been farmers and ranchers from their youth!

Zechariah 13:4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive: 5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth. 6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

They will even confess that their 'workworn' and calloused hands were actually falsely arranged by their friends.

In the U.S., G.B. and all around the world, people will realize they have been bound up in the deceptive ties of pagan and idolatrous ideas of Christmas, Easter, Hallowe'en, and start to repent and give up practicing them.

In the Day of the Lord all nations will become involved, and it will not just be a siege, it will be a gigantic battle.

Zechariah 14 Behold, the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. 2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

The Bible has not been written to please men, it is inspired from Genesis to Revelation, and that includes its 'errors'; the whole book is perfect and is exactly as God intended it to be. As Christ said, not one jot or tittle, any part of a letter will not pass away. Every hair on our heads is numbered, an astonishing thought if you take it literally, and why not? Does God have computers to keep track of everything in the universe including our hairs? Maybe!

The book of Revelation is considered by Greek "scholars" to be absolutely riddled with grammatical errors, but remember John was inspired to write it by Christ and it is perfect. We are even warned in Revelation not to attempt to correct any of those so-called "errors"! Interestingly, the book of James, who was not a Greek scholar, is in perfect Greek!

Revelation 22:18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

There are no 'men of God' extant in the religions of this world. 1 Timothy 2:5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; There is none righteous, not one. The only safe source of information about God is within the pages of the Bible. The re-emergence of a complete Bible in the right order is a key to look for as this end time matures.
